Dear Sir/Madam,

I am pleased to inform you that RACVIAC – Centre for Security Cooperation and its partners are organizing a Physical Security and Stockpile Management (PSSM) Course in the period of 5-9 November 2012. This is a Technical Level Course designed for personnel involved in the in-service surveillance of all types of conventional ammunition, particularly the employees of national laboratories.

The working language of the course will be English. Most of the lecturers will represent the Defense Threat Reduction Agency (DTRA) and the Bundeswehr Verification Centre (BwVC) of the Federal Republic of Germany.

In this regard, I kindly ask you to nominate three participants, preferably employees of national laboratories, governmental organizations or agencies involved in the surveillance of national stockpiles of conventional ammunition.

I would like to reiterate that RACVIAC would cover the costs of accommodation and meals for all participants during their engagement as well as the transportation costs to/from Zagreb for the representatives of supported countries (Republic of Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Montenegro, former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia<sup>1</sup>, Republic of Serbia) to the extent agreed by MAG.

For your information, an overview containing more detailed information about the course, administrative information and a draft agenda are enclosed with this letter.

I respectfully request the representatives' data to be provided on the attached form for the aforementioned course not later than 15 October 2012. Any information received earlier would be highly appreciated.

For further details you are invited to contact LtCol Zoltan VOLGYI, SME, e-mail: zvolgyi@racviac.org, tel.: +385 1 333 0 827, fax: +385 1 333 0 829.

I look forward to our future cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Ambassador Nikola Todorčevski
Director of RACVIAC
